Expands presence and national footprint

WEXFORD, PA – October 31, 2001 – Express Technologies announces the opening of its new offices in Tampa, FL.

The new facility establishes a closer presence to the firm's clientele in that area. The offices accommodate Express Technologies growing service to the the exempt commodities and port intermodal markets. The offices will be a base of operations for training, implementation and technical support, including a project management center.

Heidi Evans, ExpressTech's Director of Financial Accounting Solutions, will lead the team there. "Our expansion will facilitate collaboration and service to our customers in the exempt commodities and port intermodal markets," Mrs. Evans noted.

"This provides ExpressTech a presence in an area of growth," added Brandon Barnhart, president of the firm. "This provides a training, implementation, and support presence that is to our clients there. Our acceptance in the marketplace has our organization prepared for further expansion."
